

SCHOLARSHIPS

CCE Finland Oy is inviting applications for “Scholarships in Creativity”. The Scholarship program is open for each paper presenter. Maximum 5 scholarships , each worth 1000€, will be offered for attending 2nd Symposium on Creative Education 2014 in Finland. The selected applicants will be notified via electronic mail (e-mail) latest by 10th September 2014. The applications in free format along with all the requested attachments(.pdf) should reach us latest by 31st August 2014 before 17:00 EET(Eastern European Time) via email to info@ccefinland.org mentioning “Application for Scholarship in 2nd Symposium on Creative Education Tampere, Finland ” for as the subject line.

Guidelines

- The idea or work on creativity should be original. An abstract and full paper in free format on the same should be attached in pdf version.
- The paper should describe the subject with exempt of purpose, research methodology and results of the experiment. A theoretical paper, backed with strong literature review can be submitted.
- Authority letter from your supervisor/institutional authority should be attached with the application
- In case of Masters students, reference letters from university or Head of the department (HOD) should be attached to the application.

Scholarship of Euros 1000 will be disbursed in the form of Registration fees, Accommodation support during Symposium, School visit costs , Consulting with Education expert costs , Annual membership fees of CCE.

In case of further clarifications or queries please send an email to us at info@ccefinland.org mentioning “Query - Scholarships in creativity” as the subject line.

Disclaimer

CCE Finland Oy is not a publishing house, so we do not publish any of the literature we get for conference/symposium as ISBN journal. The paper presented in conference/symposium will NOT be considered as publications.